I. Call to Order
   a. Katie Morrow, Chair of SCLC, called the February meeting to order at 3:08 p.m.

II. Approval of Minutes
   a. Minutes from meeting #13-07, December 20, 2012 stand approved as written.

III. Introductions
   a. Silent roll call was taken.
   b. Introductions were made around the room as new members and several visitors were present.

IV. Open Forum
   a. Frank Kassak noted that there were several parties in neighborhoods on February 8 and 9, with attendance over 100 and noise violations were incurred. He said that noise abatement is slowly working but suggested that students be held more accountable in addition to city fines incurred.

V. Community Reports
   a. ASI President-Katie Morrow
      i. Katie welcomed new members Justin Wellner and Dr. Keith Humphrey. She thanked Dr. Preston Allen for his service as Interim Vice President for Student Affairs.
      ii. She noted that the first Diversity Colloquium was held on campus, with speakers from Cal Poly, the SLO Chamber and Cuesta College.

   b. ASCC President-Jordan Knowles
      i. Jordan thanked Steffanie Medina, of Creative Mediation for coming to Cuesta to present information about the program.
      ii. ASCC is in the beginning stages of addressing the smoking policy on campus.
      iii. Five students from the ASCC Advocacy Council will be visiting Washington, D.C. in March. They will meet with Representatives Barbara Boxer, Dianne Feinstein, Lois Capps and others.
      iv. ASCC has filled all their vacant positions. Election packets for 2013-14 for President and Vice President are due February 27.
      v. The Women’s basketball team will be playing for co-championship at Cuesta College.

   c. City Manager-Katie Lichtig (Michael, staff member filled in at beginning of meeting)
      i. The department is reviewing their two-year financial goals. Some of the topics include implementing strategies for addressing homelessness, wellness, fiscal health, bike paths, economic development, downtown assessments and skate park construction. The department will adopt the budget in June.
      ii. Andrew Carter has accepted a position with the City of Guadalupe. A special municipal election will be held, June 18, to elect a member of the City Council to serve the remainder of the term. A ballot mailing will go out May 20; polling can be done by mail or dropped off in-person at City Hall. Students can also participate in the election if they are registered here.

d. Residents for Quality Neighborhoods-Frank Kassak

i. Frank met with Tyler Corey, SLO Community Development Department regarding the SLO safe parking for the homeless program. Input was requested from city residents about locations for parking. Other issues discussed were shrubbery heights and limitations on the number of garage sales per year per residence.

e. Cal Poly University Housing-Tessa Stevens

i. Tessa reported that University Housing had a successful campaign for freshman to sign up for on-campus housing. There was an all-time high for applicants this year; 1,700 freshman applied during the first phase. She stated that student gpa's were slightly higher for students living in housing with three students per room. Housing developed a useful marketing piece for students and their parents to compare housing pricing between off-campus and on-campus. With all added University Housing amenities, on-campus housing is a good choice for students. Today is the Housing Fair which will includes booths for housing, service vendors, realtors, grocery stores and more.

f. Creative Mediation-Steffanie Medina

i. Steffanie presented information on Creative Mediation’s services. They are a non-profit organization and work with the City of SLO, Cuesta and Cal Poly, and the community for mediation, coaching and training at no charge to the participants. Students are encouraged to come to them for neighbor, landlord and tenant disputes. She also noted that they have an internship, one-year program and a scholarship program.

g. Cuesta College-Accreditation Update -Jordan Knowles

i. Jordan updated that Cuesta College has resolved two of three technical and fiscal stability issues so that Cuesta was removed from 'show cause' status and placed on 'warning' status. He noted that this is good news. By this time next year, Cuesta College expects to be fully reaffirmed for accreditation. He also noted that Cuesta never lost their accreditation. All information is now available on their website.

h. Cuesta College- 50th Anniversary-Shannon Hill

i. Shannon Hill, Executive Director of Advancement, recognized that Cuesta College is celebrating the 50th anniversary of the college, 1963-2013, and gave a presentation. Celebrations will be held throughout the year that will include many activities on campus. In addition, there will be special 50th anniversary branding for logos and other campus materials. In addition, both satellite campuses, in Arroyo Grande and Paso Robles, continue to grow in enrollment.
