         September. Keith Humphrey and Sandee McLaughlin will co-chair and will showcase Cal Poly and Cuesta College.
      ii. She stated that the City will define three community members to participate in the Community Civility group which will meet monthly.
   d. Residents for Quality Neighborhoods-Frank
      i. Frank reported on noise statistics obtained from CAD Data. Chief Gesell stated that the data is used to follow trends and with a combination of enforcement and education provide a level of acceptability, keep landlords accountable and with changing landlord leases and ordinances, they are looking for voluntary compliance. Katie stated that addressing the culture and behavior will build neighbor to neighbor relationships by being respectful of a neighbor’s perspective. She stated that they cannot change the reality of student housing but can change the negative behavior. Jason stated that a committee has been formed to address off campus student behavior, the program is to address negative behavior through education not through judicial punishment.
