V. Community Reports
   a. ASI President-Jason Colombini
      i. Jason reported that Cal Poly is in the middle of finals week, the library is overcrowded and the Wi-Fi needs to be upgraded. Student challenges.
      ii. He announced that Cal Poly graduation will be held on December 14.
      iii. He reported that the ASI Board of Directors approved a resolution supporting remaining on the quarter system. He stated that a 100 page report was submitted to the Chancellors office and during his visit to Cal Poly, he asked for a one page summary from Academic Senate and the Board of Directors explaining the effects on students converting to semesters. The resolution from Academic Senate did not pass but the resolution from the ASI Board of Directors passed unanimous vote. The resolution and the summary page were sent to President Armstrong and Chancellor White.
   b. ASCC President-Charles Scovell
      i. Charles commended the Cuesta senators and Executive Cabinet for a great first quarter.
      ii. He stated that open forums were held for discussion on a tobacco free campus, and survey boxes. The forums engage students for their opinions.
      iii. Charles reported that he attended a regional meeting with the General Assembly where they elected a Sargent of Arms.
   c. City Manager-Katie Lichtig
      i. Katie reported that the city had positive financial results due to over-realized revenues and additional savings from expenditures.
      ii. She stated that applications are being received for development in the community. Possible uses of funding could go to pensions, homeless centers, etc. Ideas will be presented to Council.
      iii. She stated that 78% of every dollar is coming from non-residents of San Luis Obispo. The city will perform a citizen’s community analysis on the local 1/2c tax measure. Staff members have a positive outlook on renewing the measure and it will be presented to Council in June.
   d. Residents for Quality Neighborhoods-Frank
      i. Frank stated that RQN members are busy with the Land Use Circulation Element.

VI. Business/Discussion Items
   a. Neighborhood Officer Program – Steve Gesell
   b. Chief Gesell presented SLO Police Department website showing the Neighborhood Officer Program. The program has divided the city into 13 neighborhoods and the objective of the Neighborhood Officer Program is to identify community issues, concerns, problems and crime trends which have long term quality of life issues.

c. Each area will have a dedicated police officer assigned to address community livability issues and to quickly identify concerns, problems and crime trends specific to each area. The Chief stated that every patrol officer has been assigned to a neighborhood.

d. Question was raised about the Direct Giving Program. Chief Gesell stated that the Direct Giving Program is a program that will repurpose old parking meters so community members can donate to the homeless without contributing to their addictions. It will provide opportunities to transition out of homelessness through organizations throughout the community.

e. Mayor Marx stated that homelessness is top priority on the major city goals.
