Bill #17-01

ASI Bylaws Amendment – Restructure of Recruitment and Development Roles and Responsibilities

Article I. Origin

This Bill is presented in accordance with the ASI Bylaws by Alexandra Bonestroo, College of Science and Mathematics.

Article II. Purpose

The purpose of Bill #17-01 is to restructure the ASI Recruitment and Development Committee by eliminating the duty of consulting on all training programs and professional development activities, and reallocate that responsibility to the Officer Team. This would allow the Recruitment and Development Committee to solely focus on recruitment and the ASI Elections. This change renames the Recruitment and Development Committee to the Recruitment and Elections Committee.

Article III. Background

The ASI Recruitment and Development committee only has enough time in the academic year to focus on the ASI Elections and recruitment. The professional development responsibility has been delegated to the Officer Team for several years.

Article IV. Implementation

Current wording states:

4.3.5. The ASI Recruitment and Development Committee. This committee is responsible for the effective recruitment of candidates to serve in every branch of ASI Student Government in addition to ASI Leadership Team positions. This committee develops and recommends regulations pertaining to elections for approval by the Board of Directors, supervises the conduct of all ASI Elections, and reports the results of ASI Elections to the Board of Directors. The specific operations of this committee in regards to elections shall be carried out in accordance with the ASI Election Code. Additionally, this committee will consult with the ASI Leadership Team and ASI staff regarding the coordination of all training programs and any professional development activities that occur internally in ASI Student Government. Membership to the ASI Recruitment and Development Committee shall include the following members:

With the recommended changes it would now state:
