I. Call to Order: Meeting #18-10 was called to order at 5:10 p.m.

II. Flag Salute

III. Letters & Roll Call
   A. Roll call was taken and with 26 members present, quorum was met.

IV. Open Forum
   A. Members from SAFER spoke on behalf of the program stating the need for additional staff to help address sexual assault, dating violence, stalking and bystander intervention through the program. They are requesting funding for a program coordinator from the Student Success Fee Allocations and encouraged members to write a resolution in support of the funding. A student shared her story and told how SAFER helped her through her traumatic experience.

   B. Gina Welisch expressed her frustration and disappointment in ASI and the Dean of Students office in regards to panelist Bill Whittle and the Fake News Panel event. She stated that it is irresponsible to host a platform for racism.

V. Approval of Minutes
A. Minutes from Meeting #18-09, January 24, 2018
   i. Motion #1 (Alexander/Griffin) “Move to approve the minutes from meeting #18-08, January 10, 2018.”
   ii. Motion passed unanimous voice vote.

VI. Leaders’ Reports
A. Chair of the Board – Daniela Czerny
   i. Daniela welcomed special guest, President Jeffrey Armstrong, to discuss the Opportunity Grant and Opportunity Fee.
   ii. Motion #2 (Warner/Dupray) “Move to extend time limits under Leaders Reports.”
   iii. Motion passed unanimous voice vote.
   iv. President Armstrong stated that low income students do not have the opportunity to come to Cal Poly. The proposed solution is to provide full financial aid for Cal Poly campus fees and academic support for low income California students admitted to Cal Poly through the Cal Poly Opportunity Grant. The Opportunity Grant will be established primarily through the Opportunity Fee which will be charged to all entering non-California students starting fall 2018. He stated that Cal Poly is under the market price in comparison to UC’s or other states. The goal is to provide as many undergraduate, California students as possible with financial aid for all Cal Poly fees. Grant recipients would also receive proactive advising and a technology package to assist with the purchase of a laptop. He stated that the use of fees designated for support services for students receiving the grant would be reviewed by an advisory committee comprised of a majority of students along with faculty and staff. An annual report on the fee revenue and grant disbursements will be provided annually to the advisory committee, the Cal Poly Campus Advisory Council and the Chancellor. President Armstrong stated that Cal Poly is following CSU procedure for an alternative consultation to obtain advice from the student body. He encouraged members to submit comments on the Cal Poly Portal home page and encouraged students to attend the open forums.
   v. President Armstrong fielded questions from concerned students who felt that out of state students will choose not to come to Cal Poly with higher tuition fees. Daniela thanked President Armstrong for coming and speaking to the Board.
   vi. Daniela reported that there have been changes to the Fake News Panel and stated that ASI does not support or endorse any panelist and will continue to sponsor the event with the focus on civil dialogue.
   vii. Her lunch meeting with Lorlie included discussion about sustainability. She was pleased with their efforts.

B. ASI President –Riley Nilsen
   i. Riley acknowledged the guests for open forum, stating that those students spoke up and are counting on Student Government members as leaders to hear their concerns and address them. She stated that their feelings cannot be ignored.
   ii. She reported that if the Governor does not fully fund education in the next budget, there could potentially be a $3 million budget cut. The Board of Trustees is also considering a tuition increase.
iii. She stated that the Campus Fee Advisory Committee is soliciting pro/con statements for the Opportunity Grant. An objective statement will be created once the pro/con statements are compiled.

iv. Riley reported that more proposals have been submitted to the Student Success Fee Allocation Committee. The committee will make the decision on the funding allocation.

C. ASI Chief of Staff –Brett Raffish
i. Brett reported that the Executive Cabinet will host a mixer with members of University Police Department, San Luis Obispo Police Department and San Luis Obispo Fire Department to gain better relationships with our first responders.

ii. He stated that the Executive Cabinet is hosting their Climb for Clear Skies event partnering with Woodstock’s Pizza and the San Luis Obispo Department of Parks and Recreation to run a three-week long initiative to raise money for individuals affected by wildfires across the state of California. Individuals are encouraged to hike Cerro San Luis mountain and visit to Woodstock’s pizza, where a percentage of their purchase will be donated to the Red Cross Disaster Relief Fund. This initiative will run from January 21 to February 12.

iii. He reported that the Making a Mustang campaign focuses on academic success and they are bringing academic advisors from all colleges to answer student questions at the event on February 15.

iv. Brett announced the Swap Don’t Shop event where students can drop off their gently used clothing on Friday to be “swapped” on Saturday.

D. Vice Chair of UUAB –Dani Diele
i. Dani reported that the University Union Neighborhood project is continuing to progress as members from the Corporation and ASI met with the architects to discuss different areas which the project needs to address.

ii. UUAB will begin to survey students to learn what type of technology and software students would want in a tech lounge, which will be created in the San Luis Lounge.

iii. She stated that the Doerr Family Field ribbon cutting was a great success that showcased the strong collaboration between all involved parties.

iv. Dani announced the UUAB office hours on Wednesdays at Woodstock’s Pizza where members can discuss their projects and work on them together.

VII. Executive Directors Report –Marcy Maloney
A. Marcy announced that ASI will sponsor Aaron Watson at the Cal Poly Rodeo.

i. She stated that ASI’s goal for sponsoring events such as the Fake News Panel is to bring diverse groups to campus and expose students to different perspectives.

B. Mid-Year Budget Review – Dwayne Brummett
i. Dwayne explained that this report is an ongoing show of transparency on how ASI is doing financially at mid-year. He reviewed each line item and stated that the mid-year totals are unfavorable by $71,238 due to the deduction from ASI Reserves for campus projects approved by last year’s Board. He stated that by the end of the year the budget will reflect as favorable.

ii. Layla asked to seek recognition at 7:15 p.m. and was recognized.
VIII. Old Business
A. None

IX. New Business
A. Action Item: Endorsement #18-04 Endorsement of the Academic Senate’s Resolution to Update Campus Policy on Faculty Office Hours.
   i. Motion #3 (Griffin/Smith) “Move to approve Endorsement #18-04 endorsement of the Academic Senate’s resolution to update campus policy on faculty office hours.”
   ii. Mark stated that the purpose of the resolution is to show support for the Academic Senate’s resolution which is in response to the findings of the Office Hours Task Force. The task force was formed to develop new language for the Campus Administrative Policy to replace the current policy that has been in place since 1980.
   iii. Motion passed unanimous voice vote.

X. Representatives’ Reports
A. University President’s Representative – Dean Kathleen McMahon
   i. Dean McMahon commented on the Fake News Panel and the concerns addressed during Open Forum. She stated that the Dean of Students office initial intent was to support civil discourse and not be an endorsement of the panelists.
   ii. She stated that the Dean of Students office received a Department of Justice grant that will fund a Gender Violence Coordinator position for three years.
   iii. She announced “With Us,” the National Network for Peer Accountability that promotes health and safety, prevents violence, and empowers proactive intervention to help others. “With Us” is expanding the mission of Aware Awake Alive to include preventing harm and lives lost to hazing, alcohol and drug abuse, sexual assault, hate and bias, and other forms of violence on college campuses.
   iv. Kathleen announced the Change the Status Quo on February 16-17. The workshops will focus on social action and community involvement.

B. Academic Senate Representative – Dr. Kris Jankovitz
   i. Absent

C. Cal Poly Corporation Representative – Lorlie Leetham
   i. Lorlie announced that the meal share program is up and running. She stated that a food distribution program for leftover catered food is under development.
   ii. The Corporation is working on strategic planning and defining their priorities. Sustainability has been determined as one of their priorities.
   iii. She stated that Senate Bill 1359, requires all California Community Colleges, and California State Universities, to identify in the online version of their course schedule the courses that exclusively use digital course materials. Students must be notified that the course materials are free of charge.

iv. Lorlie stated that she is excited to see the UU Neighborhood project moving forward.
