Leaders’ Reports
   A. Chair of the Board – Rob Moore
      i. Rob condemned the racist actions of the individuals in the social media post that has circulated campus. He stated that no human is illegal and asked members of the Board to work together to ensure that we do not allow this incident to go unaddressed without action.
      ii. University Housing Presentation – Dr. Jo Campbell, Executive Director of University Housing
         i. Rob introduced Dr. Campbell for a presentation on the future of University Housing.
a. Dr. Campbell stated that the goals for the future of University Housing include:
   (a) House all first and second-year students
   (b) Incorporate more academic and support services
   (c) Diversify housing options
   (d) Provide a diverse and engaging residential experience where students thrive

b. She reported that Campus Administrative Policy, Section 660.1 states that when the housing portfolio has enough bed spaces, all admitted students who enter the university as freshmen will be required to live on campus for two years. Yakitutu currently has 1,600 beds and an additional 1,100 plus 500 specialty beds will open in 2023. The new space will include more classrooms and multi-use space, retail, and outdoor amenities. Dr. Campbell discussed the affordability efforts from University Housing and exemptions to the two-year policy. Members expressed their concerns about the increase in housing prices and stated that each exemption should be thoroughly reviewed before a decision is made. Some students have been denied and feel they do not “fit in” or feel welcome in the housing community.

B. ASI President – Mark Borges
   i. Mark reiterated Rob’s words about our commitment to better not only ourselves, but our campus as well. He stated that this act of prejudice should not be tolerated and must address the act of racism and the larger conversation of systemic racism, bias, and prejudice towards our underrepresented community.
   ii. He stated that he and Kylie Clark will be attending the CSSA-Fresno Conference.

C. Chief of Staff – Shayna Lynch
