      i. Rob began the meeting by recognizing that we are occupying indigenous yaktit’u ti’tu yak tilhini Northern Chumash land.

II. Flag Salute

III. Letters & Roll Call
   A. The Chair read an email from Manmit Singh Chahal regarding the proposed election spending limit. He stated that not everyone is socioeconomically privileged, and he felt that by approving a spending limit of $1,500, you are telling them that they are not welcomed into ASI. He hopes that the Board will consider lowering the spending limit.

IV. Open Forum
   A. None

V. Approval of the Minutes
   A. Approval of minutes from meeting #20-06, November 15, 2019
      i. Motion #1 (Sandoval/Kragh) “Move to approve the minutes from meeting #20-06, November 15, 2019.”

C. Upcoming Flex Your Right: Storm the Dorm events will be held at Poly Canyon Village and North Mountain.

D. Be Present mental health awareness campaign will be held on February 3-7. Topics include, Capture the Moment, Attitude of Gratitude, Surrounding Mindfulness, and Write it Down. All these activities are centered on reminding students to not get bogged down by fears of the future, but to stay present and enjoy what life has to offer right now.

D. Chair of UUAB – Elizabeth Roseman
   i. Elizabeth reported that she, Mr. Faz, and Ms. Lynch attended the 131 Tournament of Rose Parade on New Year’s Day. The float was titled Aquatic Aspirations and won the Director's Award for its outstanding artistic design and use of floral and non-floral materials.
   ii. She stated that second round interviews are being held for the Director of Recreational Sports.
   iii. The UUAB has begun presenting projects on the UU Neighborhood to College Club Councils and other student groups on campus. She stated that groups are engaged and interested in learning more about the University Union changes. She hopes that the presentations will increase the awareness of the role of UUAB and help with recruitment in spring quarter.
   iv. She stated that furniture was tested, and selections were made for Chumash Auditorium and the fireside lounges.
   v. She encouraged members to attend UUAB meetings or workshops on Thursdays from 2-4 p.m. At the next meeting, UUAB will begin planning a Recreation Center Membership Celebration set for February and discuss the Recreation Center dress code.

i. Motion #4 (Clark/Kragh) “Move to amend the 2019-20 ASI External Affairs Committee Operating Rules.”

ii. Kylie stated that the time needed to change due to a class conflict.

iii. Motion passed unanimous voice vote.

C. Action Item: 2020-21 ASI Election Code

i. Conner expressed gratitude to the Recruitment & Elections Committee for their hard work thus far. This document will be the governing document for ASI Elections.

ii. Motion #5 (O’Neil/Morales) “Move to approve the 2020-21 ASI Election Code.”

iii. Motion #6 (Kragh/Noyes) “Move to change Article 10, Section 2 to strike $1,500 and insert $1,000.”

iv. Brian stated that he has serious concerns on the spending limit and could cause huge barriers to low economic backgrounds and could expose inequities. He stated that Cal Poly has the highest spending limit in the California State University system.

v. Members stated that as a Board we should trust the decision from the Recruitment & Elections Committee. Lowering the limit to $1,000 will still be too high for low economic backgrounds. By using available resources, you can still run a successful campaign and not spend a lot of money. It was stated that lowering the amount is a scapegoat for a bigger issue of distinguishing donations from the money out of pocket. Focus on educating candidates on how to raise the funds.

vi. Motion #7 (Nevarez/Regli) “Move previous question.”

vii. Motion requires 2/3 vote and failed with 12 in the affirmative and 10 in the negative.

viii. Motion #8 (Regli/Fowler) “Move to approve to limit debate to one debate per person per one minute.”

ix. Motion requites 2/3 vote and failed with 14 in the affirmative, 9 in the negative, and 2 abstentions.

x. Debate continued on the amendment stating candidates can be creative without spending money. Members agreed that focusing on the spending limit will not get to the real issue and the need to make ASI more assessable. Discouragement was stated that this amendment was not brought to the committee earlier and pushed the issue until the end. The committee worked hard, and their work has been pushed aside. Members should trust in the committee’s decision and further change can be made in the future.

xi. A vote on the amendment failed by majority hand vote.
xii. The vote on the main motion passed by majority voice vote.
