Matt Bohannon passed around the latest ACUI Bulletin which had an article submitted by Michelle Broom explaining our recent remodel of the UU and the building of the Epicenter.

Brailsford and Dunlavey have completed their campus interviews and have moved onto the next phase of the process.

MEMBER REPORTS

- A. Marcy Maloney reported that ASI's strategic planning sessions are occurring this weekend. Also, the Sports Team Task Force will be sharing information with UUAB soon.
- B. Mark Hunter:
 - a. 1400 applicants have submitted the required money to hold a space in the new housing.
 - b. If anyone is interested in a tour of Engineering 3 on February 7th, please send an email to mhunter@calpoly.edu.
 - c. Budget cutbacks are going to cause layoffs. First priority maintenance areas are locker rooms, gymnasiums, and bathroom facilities. This means that campus faculty and staff offices may not be serviced on a daily basis.
- C. Dave Edwards
 - a. An interactive art show has begun in the Gallery. All are encouraged to stop by and check it out
 - b. Stacy Valdez has accepted the temporary Program Assistant position in the Epicenter
 - c. The back office in Student Government has been converted to a small conference room for groups up to 6
 - d. The first Interclub Council meeting is to be held tomorrow night, Jan. 29th, in the Epicenter
 - e. Harlem Globetrotters will be appearing on Feb. 10th in the Rec Center
 - f. Bad Boys of the Big Screen Film series will be held on Tuesday evenings in February
 - g. Dinner with the Director is being held this quarter on Feb. 4th in Room 216. Invitations should be given to students that might not utilize the UU and it's programs on a regular basis, as well as regular users

- D. Stephen Harvey reported that Board of Directors is looking closely at the ASI election process and evaluating putting a cap on campaign spending. The deposit required for a presidential election packet was raised to $100.00, which is refundable when all deadlines are met and the paperwork is turned in. The deadline for this coming election is Feb. 4th.

DISCUSSION

UU Celebration

- a. What is best time of year to hold it? Fall would probably be best, but not to interfere with WOW
- b. Brailsford & Dunlavey will be done with ASI Master Plan and it should be showcased at any UU events
- c. Establish the purpose of UU Celebration: is it strictly a UU event or should it be combined with other ASI events such as ThrowFest, or Customer Appreciation Days at Rec Center?

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Renee Crozier encouraged everyone to attend the events being held in conjunction with Campus Crusade's Veritas Forum being held this week on campus.

Next meeting is February 11, 2003. The budget process will be discussed with Dwayne Brummett.
